Art Palm Beach Show News

Welcoming St. Jude, Gallery Highlights, and more...

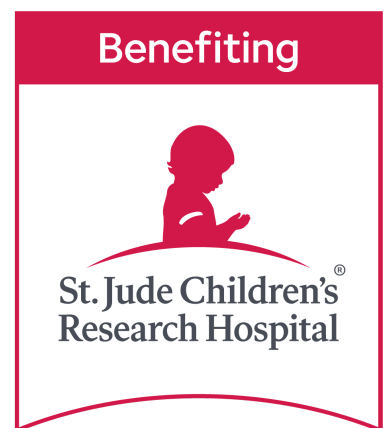

As we get closer to the Opening Night of Art Palm Beach, we're pleased to share special news about our new partnership with St. Jude Children's Research Hospital®! We're also excited to introduce two of the galleries that will be participating as exhibitors in 2023: Eckert Fine Art and Latin Art Core Gallery. Read on...

Art Palm Beach Partners with St. Jude

We're delighted that St. Jude Children's Research Hospital® will join us as the exclusive Charity Partner of Art Palm Beach 2023. The Show will donate 15 percent of proceeds from ticket sales to St. Jude. Your ticket purchase supports St. Jude in its life-saving mission: Finding cures. Saving children®.

St. Jude has been a valued charity partner of our sister show, the LA Art Show, since 2014. To celebrate this new partnership with Art Palm Beach, tickets purchased during December for the Art Palm Beach Show Opening Night premiere on January 25, 2023, will receive a special gift from St. Jude at the event.

St. Jude Children's Research Hospital® is leading the way the world understands, treats and defeats childhood cancer and other life-threatening diseases. Learn more about St. Jude here.

Gallery Highlights

Art Palm Beach 2023 will host a diverse and exciting line-up of galleries from North America and around the world. Stay tuned as we continue to introduce our exhibitors!

Eckert Fine Art

We're delighted Eckert Fine Art joins us as an exhibitor in 2023! Located in North Adams, Mass. on the campus of MASS MoCA, the gallery specializes in Post-War and Contemporary art. Started by Jane Coats Eckert in 1996, Eckert Fine Art first opened in Naples, Florida after Eckert formed a business relationship with renowned American artist Robert Rauschenberg.

Eckert has worked with some of the most luminary American Post War and Contemporary artists including Christo, John Chamberlain, Julian Stanczyk, Robert Indiana, James Rosenquist, Sol LeWitt, James Turrell, Don Gummer, Hunt Slonem, Chizuru Morii Kaplan and Robert Cottingham. The gallery is the exclusive representative of the Realist painter, Eric Forstmann. For this edition of Art Palm Beach, Eckert Fine Art will feature work by various artists, including Eric Forstmann, Robert Rauschenberg and David Hockney.

Eric Forstmann

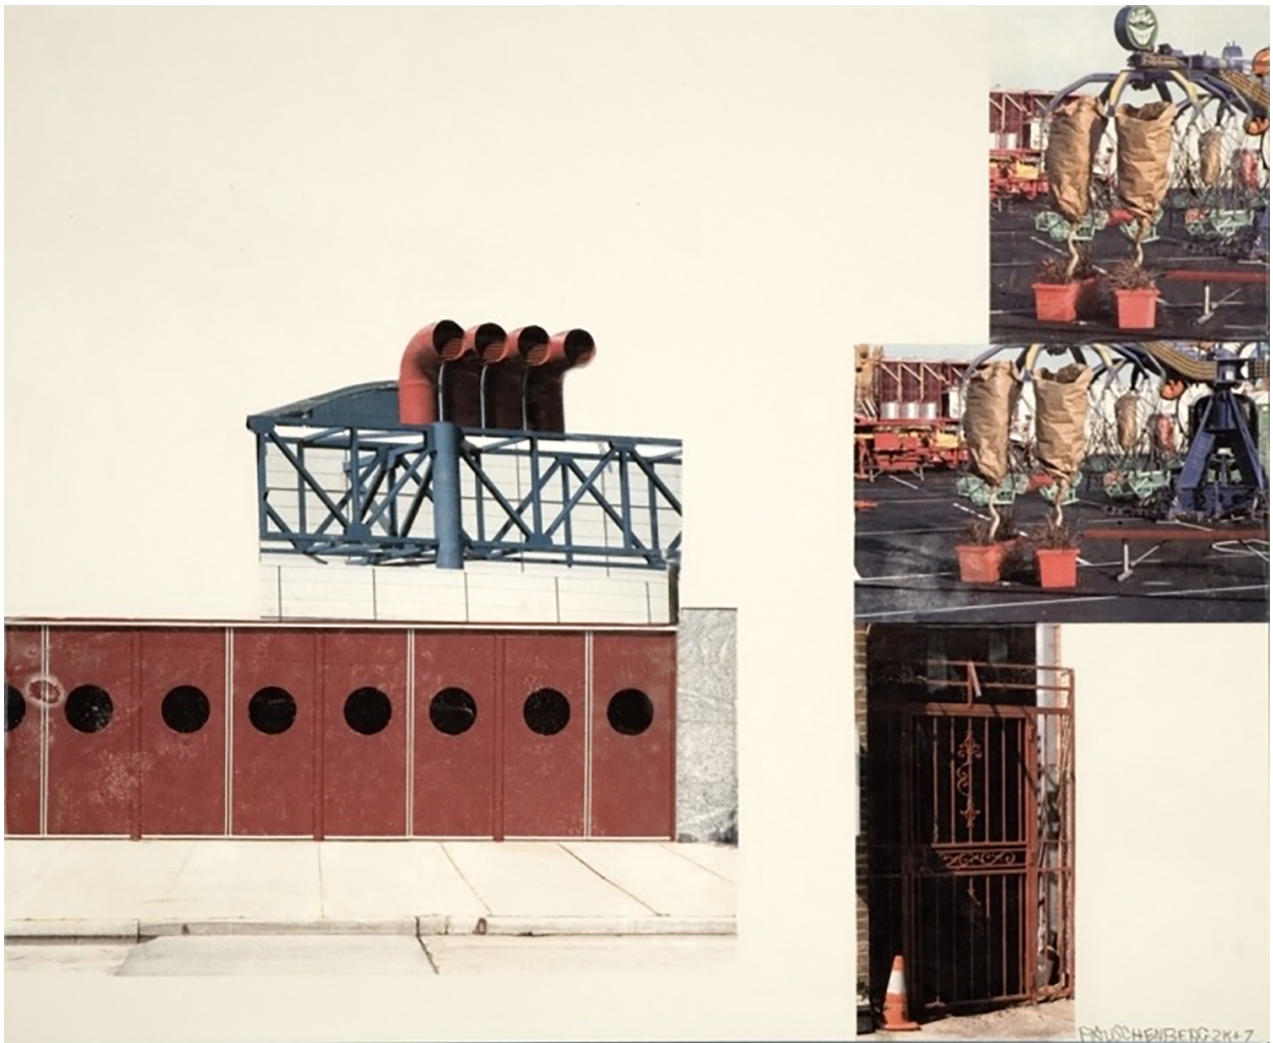

Eric Forstmann paints with a forlorn beauty, basing his viewpoint on what's around him. His authentic voice allows him to keep one foot in the present, the other in the 19th century. Forstmann's landscapes are created "en plein air," or outdoors.

Robert Rauschenberg

Robert Rauschenberg (1925-2008) was an American painter and graphic artist whose early works anticipated the Pop art movement. Rauschenberg is well known for his Combines, a group of artworks which incorporated everyday objects as art materials, blurring the distinctions between painting and sculpture.

Latin Art Core Gallery

We are excited that Latin Art Core Gallery will join us at our upcoming show! The gallery is located in the Little Havana neighborhood of Miami, on the street of Calle Ocho, the emblematic heart of Latin culture in South Florida. Latin Art Core focuses on representing and showcasing the works of many world-famous Latin American and Cuban artists, contributing with great impact to the presence of Latin American and Cuban art in the United States.

For the 2023 edition of Art Palm Beach, Latin Art Core Gallery will present the work of selected artists including Tomás Sánchez and Wilfredo Lam.

Wilfredo Lam

Wilfredo Lam (1902-1982) was a Cuban artist who sought to portray and revive the enduring Afro-Cuban spirit and culture. Primarily a painter, Lam combined his influences, creating a unique style characterized by a preponderance of hybrid figures.

Tomás Sánchez

Primarily a painter and draftsman, Tomás Sánchez is a versatile artist who has worked in many media. Among his favorite themes is landscape, but he also explores expressionism and has used trash cans among his subjects.
