DIVERSEartPB Debuts in 2023

For the debut of DIVERSEartPB, we're pleased to present a special exhibition by multi-media artist Marcos Lutyens. In his installation produced in Joshua Tree in the California desert, the artist takes the viewer on a hypnotic video projection addressing the current drought in California and the rest of the world.

In his work, Lutyens targets the psychic and emotional well-being of his audiences by leading participants in hypnotic exercises that affect the deepest levels of the psyche. Lutyens has collaborated with celebrated neuro-scientists V. Ramachandran and Richard Cytowic. Through studying under shamans from different cultures, he has worked with the unconscious states of viewers in museums, galleries and biennales around the world. His vision takes form in installation, sculpture, drawing, short films, writing and performance.
