Art Palm Beach Opening Night was a Dazzling Success! Join us for Day 1... Thursday, January 26!

Our Opening Night Premiere Party was a well-attended lively event that drew a crowd of thousands of West Palm Beach art lovers to the Palm Beach County Convention Center. An exciting and vibrant show, popping with engaging presentations of fine artwork by more than 80 exhibiting galleries from North America and around the world, dazzled our viewers.

We're very pleased that multiple galleries sold artwork on opening night. Among these, one of the extraordinary large-scale sculptures, Moss Giants, created by Kim Simonsson and presented by Galerie Fledermaus, was sold on opening night! We're honored that the debut of Art Palm Beach, under the new and visionary leadership of LA Art Show producer / director Cassandra Voyagis, was a well-received success benefiting St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. In addition, fifteen percent of proceeds from all ticket sales for the 5-day event benefit St. Jude.

Day 1: Thursday, January 26

Join us for Day 1 of a completely re-imagined Art Palm Beach. The show is buzzing with energy and an extraordinary array of great modern and contemporary art. It's the talk of the town!

Featured Exhibition Highlight

For Art Palm Beach 2023, we present seven featured exhibitions, specially curated by renowned curators for this event. Among these compelling featured exhibitions is a selection of paintings by contemporary British artist Duncan McCormick, presented by Waterhouse & Dodd.

Duncan McCormick

Presented by Waterhouse & Dodd

Booth 800

Duncan Robert McCormick is a British painter whose vision and palette are influenced by a period of living and working in Barcelona. After two decades of painting predominantly in oils, McCormick started using acrylic paint during lock-down. His subject matter shifted from his previous narrative-based work to gentle landscapes and interiors as a means of escapism. Some of McCormick's influences are clear, such as David Hockney and Peter Doig. Other influences include Howard Hodgkin, Louis Le Brocqy and Pierre Bonnard. Don't miss it!

DIVERSEartPB Highlight

We're thrilled to introduce the inaugural edition of DIVERSEartPB, our special exhibition platform curated by Marisa Caichiolo. For 2023, this boundary-pushing program features a series of three cutting-edge installations involving international museums and art organizations focusing on the global climate crisis. Today we highlight one of the installations, Ascenso, created by Chilean artist Samuel Dominguez.

Ivan Navarro: FIGHT FOR YOUR LAND

Samuel Domínguez: ASCENSO

Curated by: Mahara Martinez, Vitrina Lab

Presented by Vitrina Lab / Arts Non-Profit

This multi-media animation explores how we navigate the concept of landscape today. The artwork, combined with music designed by Francisca Bascuñán, immerses the viewer in a digitally built artificial scenario. Trees, rocks and fragments of soil are installed in what seems to be a film set, with steel structures (truss) and a chroma-green screen background, a technique used in post-production to replace the background in films.
