Gallery Highlight: Waterhouse & Dodd

It was a pleasure to welcome Waterhouse & Dodd as an exhibiting gallery at Art Palm Beach in January. A fine art gallery and advisory founded in 1982, Waterhouse & Dodd is dedicated to exhibiting and dealing in Post-Impressionist, Modern and Contemporary art. With an international presence, Waterhouse & Dodd has galleries in London and New York City, as well as a Paris office. Following up on the 2023 show, we're delighted Waterhouse & Dodd plans to participate in Art Palm Beach next year:

"We are pleased to announce our return to Art Palm Beach Show in January. We are thrilled and can reaffirm the quality of the past inaugural art fair, in the center of vibrant Palm Beach, Florida. The general selection of art galleries showcasing contemporary artists has contributed to the overall success of the event and we have had a successful experience. We are excited to meet again in January 2024."

Upcoming Gallery Exhibition: Edward Povey

Coming up in October, Waterhouse and Dodd will present a solo show in New York City featuring the work of contemporary English artist Edward Povey. A figurative painter, Povey fits into the period following Postmodernism. His paintings are paradoxical, combining the honest flat perspective of pre-Renaissance religious paintings with a varied range of perspectives. Borrowing from Raphael, the palette Povey uses to portray flesh is extended into the whole painting, importing the starved and penitent look of the figures in the Italian Renaissance artist's altarpieces. Povey further glazes his surfaces to build a troubled translucency into the figure. He lives and works in Devon, England.
