Women-Owned Galleries & Announcing American Heart Association as our New Charity Partner!

Art Palm Beach is delighted to highlight four of our wonderful women-owned galleries: Erin Cluley Gallery, Beatriz Esguerra Art, Adamar Fine Art and BlinkGroup Gallery. We're also very proud to introduce our new charity partner for 2024, the American Heart Association.

Gallery Highlight: Erin Cluley Gallery

We look forward to welcoming Erin Cluley Gallery, joining our roster of women-owned galleries, as a first-time exhibitor at Art Palm Beach next year. Opened by Erin Cluley in 2014, the contemporary gallery represents emerging and mid-career artists based in Dallas and the East Coast of the United States. The gallery embraces a provocative program of exhibiting artists engaged in both traditional and alternative media, including painting, sculpture, new media, photography, sculptural installation and public intervention.

Cluley recently moved her operation to the Riverbend development in the Design District. In 2021, she opened a West Dallas location, Cluley Projects, to act as an incubator for regional artists and provide a platform for discovery and mentorship – often presenting work by artists from underrepresented communities. Previously, Cluley served as the Director of Exhibitions for Dallas Contemporary working on exhibitions with K8 Hardy, Julian Schnabel, Shepard Fairey, Erwin Wurm, Inez & Vinood and others.

Nic Nicosia's Bighands in the Nasher Sculpture Center Garden, Dallas, Texas

For its inaugural presentation at Art Palm Beach, the gallery will present an exhibition of work by Nic Nicosia. A Dallas-based artist with a background in motion pictures, Nicosia focused much of his career on infusing the still image with a cinematic mind-set and is recognized as a pioneer of the staged photographic movement that came into prominence in the early 1980s. During the past 13 years, Nicosia has increasingly turned to sculpture, bringing the figures of his photographs into three-dimensional space.

Gallery Highlight: Beatriz Esguerra Art

Beatriz Esguerra Fine Art is a contemporary art gallery specializing in representing work by artists from Colombia. The brainchild of owner / director Beatriz Esguerra, the gallery was first opened in 2000. Based in Bogotá and Miami, Beatriz Esguerra Fine Art represents 15 artists with a dynamic exhibition program. Permanence, transcendence, intelligence, aesthetics, harmony and skill, are the values BEA seeks in art. Among artists represented are: Carlos Alarcon, Pablo Arrázola, Teresa Currea, Luis Luna, Pedro Ruiz and Maritza Wild-Chateau. The gallery's program is driven by the idea: Art should enrich both the soul and mind, in that order.

Pablo Arrázola: Kiko Series 1

“I am looking forward to working once again with fair director Kassandra Voyagis and her team. It is her professionalism, effectiveness and creativity that always brings me back to working with her and Art Palm Beach.”

— BEATRIZ ESGUERRA

After completing art history studies at Middlebury College, Vermont, Esguerra returned home to Colombia, to build a career in contemporary Colombian art. With more than 30 years of experience, Esguerra has always abided by her mission: to enrich lives through art, with integrity and professionalism. “I promote Colombian art because it is my country, heritage and culture. I believe in it because it has fascinating stories to tell with creativity, skill and poetry. Colombian art has a resounding subtlety yet to be fully discovered by the rest of the world.”

Gallery Highlight: Adamar Fine Art

Established in 1986 by owner / director Tamar Erdberg, Adamar Fine Art is a Miami-based gallery exhibiting work by some of the most notable masters of Pop and Contemporary Art, as well as a number of local mid-career artists. Located in the fashionable Miami Design District, with an additional space in the Village of Merrick Park, the gallery was instrumental in the rebirth of the Design District as the premier Art Center of Miami. The history of Adamar Fine Art predates Art Basel Miami, Wynwood and the Perez Art Museum Miami.

Adamar Fine Art has exhibited in more than 100 prestigious international fine art fairs starting from the very first Art Miami in 1992, along with Art Hampton, Art Palm Springs, SOFACHicago, Art Concept Basel Miami Beach, Art Houston, and many others.

Kenny Scharf; Furungle Portfolio, 2021

“After participating in over 100 art fairs in our career, Adamar Fine Arts can poignantly say that Art Palm Beach exceeded all our expectations in this first-time fair. Beautifully curated and impeccably executed, the fair brought out our existing collectors and many more new ones too and did not disappoint.”

— TAMAR ERDBERG

Exhibiting artists include: Alex Katz, Wayne Thiebaud, Kenny Scharf, Donald Sultan, Debbie Carfagno, Julian Opie, Damian Hirst, Ugo Rondinone, Gavin Turk and KAWS. For its 2024 presentation at Art Palm Beach, Adamar Fine Art will show a suite of works by Kenny Scharf. An LA based artist, Scharf is a painter and installation artist associated with the Lowbrow movement. His work is a hybrid of fine art and popular culture – pulling from the traditions of Pop Art, Abstract Expressionism, Surrealism, comic books and Street Art.

Gallery Highlight: BlinkGroup Gallery

Founded in 2012 by director / curator, Elizabeth Reyes, Blink Group Gallery is a contemporary Miami-based art gallery. Of Cuban descent, Reyes was raised in the diverse cultural intersections between South America (Venezuela, and Argentina) and the United States. Combining her love of design and gallery experience from London and Miami, Reyes brings an eclectic and worldly vision to Blink Group.

Jazmin by Cuchi Taborda

The gallery represents both established and emerging international contemporary artists engaged in painting, sculpture, installation, photography, video and new media, before a global audience. Blink Group prides itself on building meaningful bonds, expanding the reach of unique works of art to a broader audience, satisfying and enriching both collector and artist.

Veronica Matiz

The gallery operates on the premise that everyone should have the chance to feel how art can transport and inspire us in the blink of an eye. Represented artists include: Albarracin, Billy Monsalve Duffo, Marta Fabregas, Pablo Fernandez, Mactivo, Veronica Matiz, Andres Pruna and Cuchi Taborada.

“As a gallery owner who puts her heart on the line, I love that Art Palm Beach seems to wear its heart on its sleeve as well. Cassandra has taken such a clever approach in curating the show by bringing her LA insight to Palm Beach and assembling a wide variety of the traditional and non-traditional, conceptual and museum, in an elegant and beautiful space that broadens and delights our artistic hunger. We can’t imagine what we’re going to see, hear, or feel when we open ourselves up to its wonder and unpredictability. This kind of inclusivity, altruism and spirit speaks to my belief in how central and transformational art can be.”

Art Palm Beach Welcomes American Heart Association as New Charity Partner

Art Palm Beach is excited to begin a new partnership with the American Heart Association (AHA), our 2024 Charity Beneficiary. We are proud to support the life-saving efforts of the American Heart Association’s Life is Why™ Campaign at next year’s show.

Donations through the Life is Why campaign – no matter the amount – allow the AHA to implement initiatives such as:

- Fund research that can improve the health outcomes of heart and stroke patients
- Train more than 2.5 million high school students in CPR annually
- Support the work of local entrepreneurs and organizations working to improve health outcomes in under-resourced communities

The American Heart Association is a relentless force for a world of longer, healthier lives. Funds donated to the AHA help pave the way for advancements in preventing, treating or even eradicating heart disease, the No. 1 killer of Americans, and stroke, the No. 5 killer. For 100 years, the AHA has saved and improved lives, pioneered scientific discovery, and advocated for healthy public policies in communities across the country.

Founded in 1924 by six cardiologists, the organization is grounded in the belief that scientific research leads the way to better treatment, prevention and – ultimately – a cure for these leading causes of death and disability. The AHA is proud to be the leading nonprofit funding cardiovascular and cerebrovascular disease research. Bold investments have led to significant medical advancements including the first artificial heart valve, implantable pacemakers, cholesterol lowering medications and techniques for CPR.
