Art Palm Beach Day 2: Highlights and more...

Art Palm Beach has had a wonderful start! After an exciting Opening Night Premiere Party on Wednesday, Thursday saw a continuous flow of art enthusiasts from Palm Beach visiting the fair.

Today marks Day 2 of Art Palm Beach! We invite you to the Palm Beach County Convention Center this Friday, January 26, from 11 am to 7 pm. Experience an exceptional array of contemporary and modern art, showcased by over 80 exhibiting galleries and museums.

Join us today for an engaging lineup, including an insightful artist talk with Kim Keever, a featured exhibition by Erin Cluley Gallery from Dallas, and a notable highlight from DIVERSEartPB, presented by MAC Museum Contemporary Art from Bogotá, Colombia.

Artist Talk

Kim Keever

Painting Under Water

Booth 808

2:00pm

Critics have suggested that Kim Keever is an “underwater Jackson Pollock.” Mr. Keever will talk about how he makes the work and try to explain the process with the example shown at the Modern Fine Art gallery. He will also talk about his philosophical view on being an artist as related to what he calls “controlled randomness” and a short history of his development as an artist.

Featured Exhibition Highlight

Sarita Westrup

Presented by Erin Cluley Gallery, Dallas

Today, we're pleased to highlight one of our featured exhibitions from Sarita Westrup, a Dallas-based fiber artist, presented by Erin Cluley Gallery.

Influenced by her childhood in the Texas-Mexico border's Rio Grande Valley, Westrup's work blends basketry with natural forms, drawing on border culture. Her art explores themes of migration and border experiences, using materials like metal, mortar, reed, and Tampico fibers. Incorporating traditional dyeing with cochineal and evocative basket forms, her work symbolizes transport, nurturing, and the essence of home, reflecting her deep connection to her cultural roots.

DIVERSEartPB Highlight

Mythstories

Carlos Castro Arias

Curated by: Gustavo Adolfo Ortiz Serrano

Presented by MAC Museum Contemporary Art / Bogota, Colombia

Mythstories looks at the world of mythology and history through the classical medium of tapestries. Appropriating the style and iconography of medieval tapestry, Castro interlaces contemporary myth to create cross-cultural connections with his own blend of irreverence. His work is based on the appropriation of historical images and the formal and symbolic re-contextualization of found objects. The artist investigates individual and collective identity, illuminating points of view overlooked in the historical narrative, while re-signifying historical images and references from an ironic contemporary day perspective.
