Art Palm Beach News

Looking Forward to 2025 and Highlights from the 2024 Show

Following the successful 2024 edition of Art Palm Beach, planning is already underway for the 2025 show, which remains the longest-running modern and contemporary art fair and the first in the season's show calendar. We aim to include an even wider range of galleries from around the world.

Scheduled to return to the Palm Beach County Convention Center from January 22-26, 2025, we are pleased to highlight three galleries from our recent January edition: Long-Sharp Gallery from Indianapolis, Cernuda Arte from Coral Gables, Florida, and Beatriz Esguerra Art from Colombia. These galleries represent the diverse and high-quality offerings that attendees can expect at Art Palm Beach, emphasizing our commitment to showcasing a broad spectrum of contemporary and modern art.
