Revisiting DIVERSEartPB: 3 Years of Art, Community, Vision and Innovation at Art Palm Beach

As Palm Beach's art scene enters the spring season, we're taking a moment to reflect on the remarkable journey of DIVERSEartPB and its significant contributions to Art Palm Beach over the years. Since its inception, DIVERSEartPB has established itself as a vital platform for connecting museums, art institutions, and non-profits within the vibrant Palm Beach art landscape.

Under the visionary curation of Marisa Caichiolo, DIVERSEartPB has successfully translated the acclaimed DIVERSEartLA concept to Palm Beach, fostering meaningful dialogue between local communities and global art institutions. Each year's program has explored pressing contemporary themes—from environmental awareness in 2023 to the intersection of memory, humanity, and AI in 2024, and most recently, the evolving role of museums in a changing world in 2025.

As we look toward 2026, we're excited to announce that details for the upcoming DIVERSEartPB program will be revealed in the coming months. Join us as we celebrate the past exhibitions that have shaped DIVERSEartPB's identity and anticipate the innovative collaborations yet to come at Art Palm Beach 2026.

DIVERSEartPB 2023 Highlights

The evolving role of museums: Fostering relevance in a changing world.

The Echo of Oblivion

Artists: Guillermo Anselmo Vezzosi and Dr. Eric Larour

Presented By: 2b Non Profit Organization (Miami)

This collaborative project between artist/architect Vezzosi and NASA JPL scientist Larour explored the concept of time as a succession of events inevitably moving toward oblivion. The marriage of scientific data and art created a dynamic work where past, present, and future converge against the silent presence of oblivion.

ASCENSO

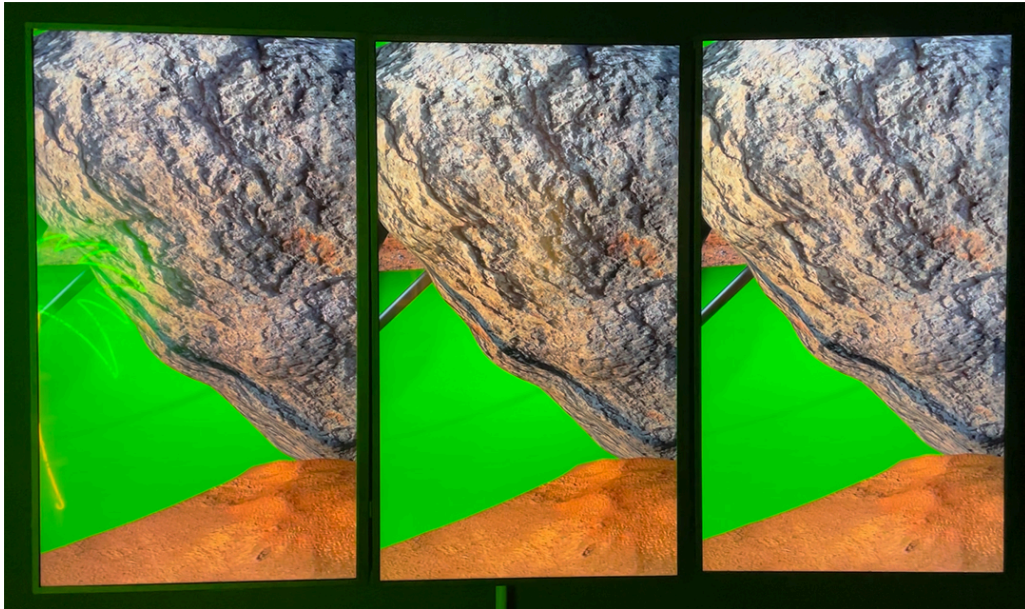

Artist: Samuel Domínguez

Sound Design: Francisca Bascuñán

Curator: Mahara Martinez

Presented By: Vitrina Lab / Arts Non Profit and Tampa Museum

This three-channel 4K animation with stereo sound immersed viewers in a digitally-built artificial scenario, questioning our understanding of “landscape” and “natural” in contemporary times. The soundtrack uniquely translated data from three-dimensional digital objects into sound.

PARTICLES

Artist: Marcos Lutyens

Curator: Marisa Caichiolo

Created for Sala IMAX Museum Sol Del Niño / Grupo Filamento – Mexico

British interdisciplinary artist Marcos Lutyens' video installation disrupted internalized patterns of thinking through hypnotic exercises affecting the deepest levels of the psyche. The work reflected Lutyens' collaborations with celebrated neuroscientists and shamans from different cultures.

DIVERSEartPB 2024 Highlights

Memory, Humanity, and AI

Museum AI

Artists: Ana Marcos | Alfonso Villanueva

Curator: Nestor Prieto

Presented By: La Neomudejar Museum – Madrid, Spain

This groundbreaking artistic research used AI to recreate 57 lost paintings from Palencia Museum, rescuing forgotten cultural heritage from oblivion. The project, supported by Spain's Ministry of Culture, received the EXPONE Award for best national exhibition 2023.

Mythstories

Artist: Carlos Castro Arias

Curator: Gustavo Adolfo Ortiz Serrano

Presented By: MAC – Museum Contemporary Art – Bogotá, Colombia

Using medieval tapestry techniques with contemporary iconography, Castro's work created a visual journey through time, weaving new understandings of recent history within our hyper-communicated society and inviting viewers to create their own myths.

Be Water

Artist: Antuan

Curator: Marisa Caichiolo

Presented By: AAL Museum – Santiago, Chile

This immersive installation explored water's multifaceted dimensions through Antuan's "Human Net" concept, symbolizing universal symmetry and wisdom. The work highlighted the collaboration between humanity and AI in addressing global water challenges.

DIVERSEartPB 2025 Highlights

The evolving role of museums: Fostering relevance in a changing world.

Ceramic Plates Collection

Presented By: MOCAA Museum (Museum of Contemporary Art of the Americas)

This fascinating collection showcased unique ceramic plates primarily created by Cuban artists and recently expanded to include creators from across the continent. The collection, one of the largest of its kind, featured nearly a thousand hand-painted plates by over 100 renowned artists from the Fine Arts Ceramic Center.

Glasstress

Artists: Nathalie Djurberg & Hans Berg

Curator: Kathleen Goncharov

Presented By: Boca Raton Museum of Art

This special preview of Glasstress exhibition featured a stop-motion animation titled “Howling at the Moon” alongside glass sculptures of the film’s protagonists. The exhibition highlighted collaborations between international contemporary artists and Murano glass masters at the Berengo Studio.

Ominka

Artist: Viktor Frešo

Curator: Marisa Caichiolo

Presented By: Danubiana Museum of Art, Bratislava, Slovakia

This monumental inflatable sculpture transformed a family heirloom—a 1964 Fool's Gold brooch—into a powerful meditation on memory and material aspirations. The work represents both a tribute to the artist's grandmother and a poignant commentary on the fleeting nature of memories.

Eternal Light – 21C The Last Judgment

Artist: HanHo

Curators: Monica Hye Yeon Jun, Ara and Anahid Oshagan

Presented By: ReflectSpace Gallery, Glendale Library, Arts & Culture and Culture Nomad (Seoul)

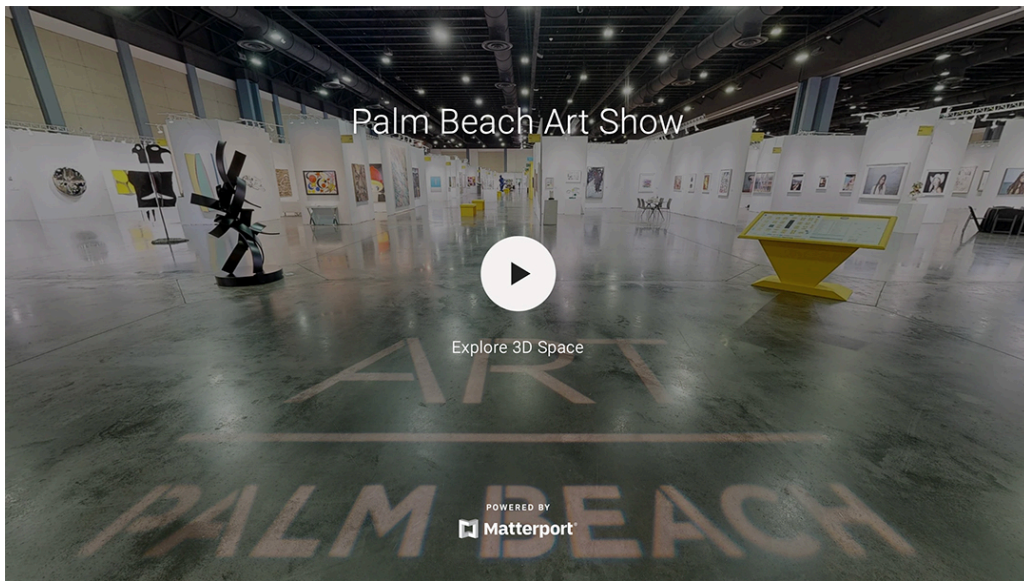

Inspired by Michelangelo's masterpiece, this nine-part multimedia panel reimagined an apocalyptic scenario for the 21st century. Using innovative technology and traditional art techniques, HanHo created immersive, light-infused worlds addressing humanity's confrontation with war, environmental disaster, and nuclear threat.
