Sylvester Stallone Retrospective & Tickets Now on Sale for Art Palm Beach 2026

As Art Palm Beach 2026 approaches, we're excited to announce an exclusive solo exhibition by acclaimed actor and artist Sylvester Stallone, presented by returning exhibitor Provident Fine Art. Additionally, tickets for Art Palm Beach 2026 are now available for purchase.

Provident Fine Art Presents Sylvester Stallone: *Evolution

Provident Fine Art from Palm Beach, Florida returns for Art Palm Beach 2026 with Evolution, a retrospective spanning over six decades of Sylvester Stallone's surrealism and abstract canvas paintings. The gallery has recently expanded their representation to include the acclaimed actor and artist, who began painting long before his film career.

As Stallone shares: "Before I ever stepped in front of a camera, I was painting. Art has always been my way of pushing through the chaos and putting emotion into something real."

The retrospective showcases Stallone's artistic evolution with works from each decade starting in the 1960s. He painted surrealism early on in the 1960s and 1970s before becoming more abstract. Stallone has employed painting as a form of expression since his adolescence, and as a prolific screenwriter, he often turned to art to assist in the development of his iconic characters. Exclusively represented by Provident Fine Art, this exhibition will mark his first major showcase in years with the majority of the works available for purchase. His artworks have previously been displayed in retrospective exhibitions at museums in St. Petersburg, Russia, and Nice, France.
