

The International Contemporary and Modern Art Fair of The Americas

Art Palm Beach News

Introducing New Galleries to Art Palm Beach 2026

As Art Palm Beach 2026 approaches, we're pleased to highlight some of our new galleries making their debut at the fair. These newcomers to our program bring fresh perspectives from London, San Francisco, Dublin, Basel, and Palm Beach, expanding the international scope of our January 28 to February 1, 2026 presentation at the Palm Beach County Convention Center.

This month, we feature Blond Contemporary from London, Gefen Gallery from San Francisco, John Martin Gallery from London, LICHT FELD Gallery from Basel, Oliver Sears Gallery from Dublin, and Onessimo Fine Art from Palm Beach. These galleries join our established roster of international exhibitors, each contributing their unique curatorial vision to Art Palm Beach's growing reputation as a destination for discerning collectors. Their participation reflects the fair's commitment to presenting both established galleries and new voices within the contemporary art market.

Read on to discover more about each gallery's history, specialization, and the perspectives they'll bring to Art Palm Beach 2026.

Blond Contemporary, London

Blond Contemporary specializes in contemporary art and photography, operating as both a secondary market specialist and an increasingly prominent platform for emerging talent. The gallery has built its reputation through years of carefully acquiring works by artists they recognize for both current excellence and future significance.

To learn more about Blond Contemporary, visit blondcontemporary.com.

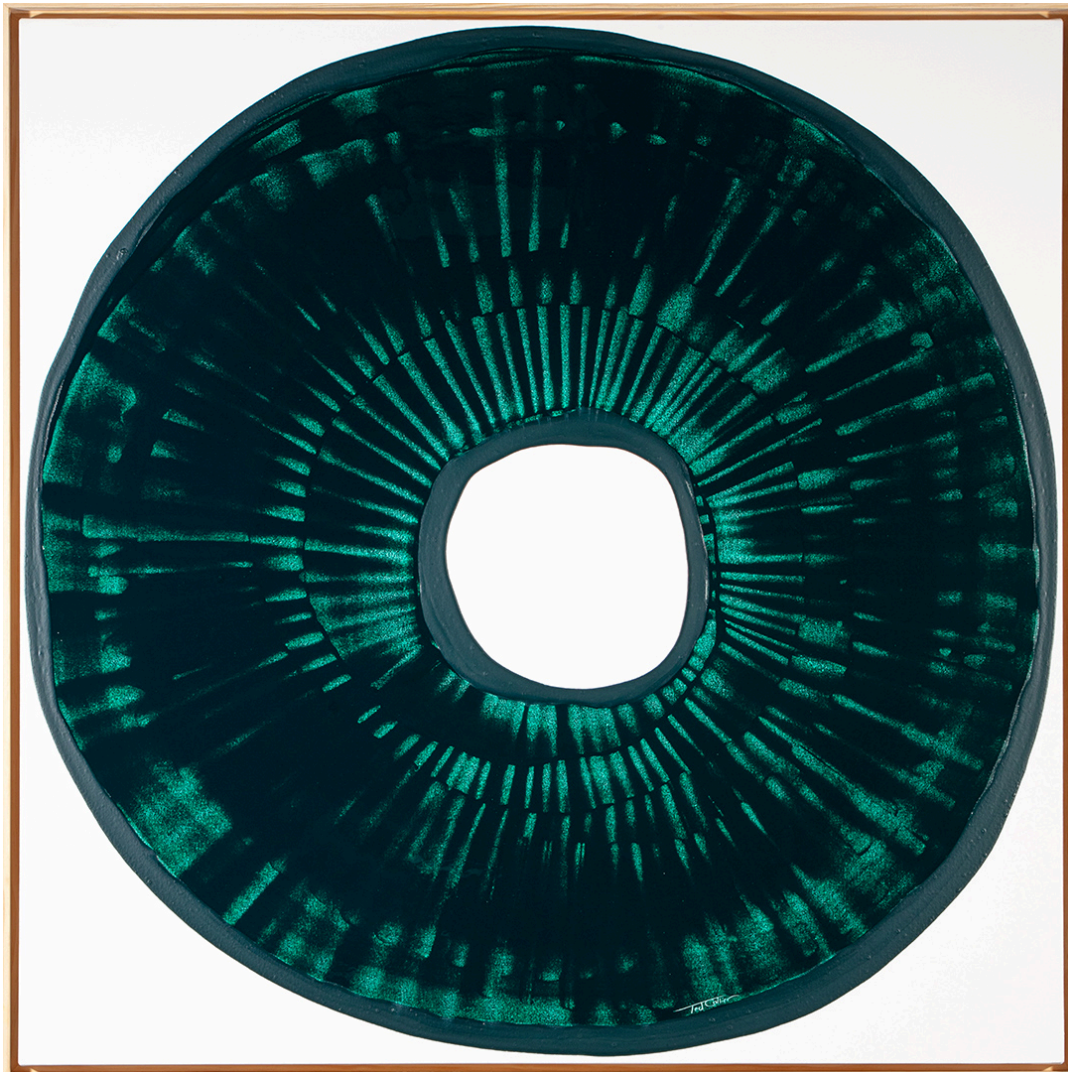

Tafadzwa Masudi: Bread Winner, 2021. Acrylic on Canvas. Courtesy Blond Contemporary

Gefen Gallery, San Francisco

Founded in 2018 by Effi Shoua, Gefen Gallery has expanded to three locations, specializing in Modern and Contemporary Art. The gallery represents a diverse roster of over twenty international emerging artists alongside established names, creating dialogue between different creative generations.

Gefen Gallery works across multiple mediums including painting, drawing, sculpture, installation, photography, and video. Beyond exhibition programming, the gallery collaborates with collectors to build art collections and facilitates special projects, including large-scale, site-specific sculptures for public and private spaces. To explore Gefen Gallery's program, visit gefengallery.com.

Ted Collier: Oleander Eyes. Acrylic with Resin. Courtesy Gefen Contemporary

John Martin Gallery, London

Operating from Mayfair since 1992, John Martin Gallery represents established international artists and artist estates while providing a platform for emerging painters and sculptors. With over three decades of experience in London's art market, the gallery has built a reputation for its carefully curated program of contemporary painting and sculpture.

The gallery's diverse roster includes Mark Adlington, John Caple, Richard Cartwright, Francis Hamel, Neale Howells, Mario Lobedan, Anne Magill, Polly Townsend, Leon Morrocco, Olivia Musgrave, Makiko Nakamura, Melita Denaro, Martin Finnin, Andrew Gifford, Gennadii Gogoliuk, William Peers, Heidrun Rathgeb, Uwe Walther, and Fred Yates. To discover more about John Martin Gallery, visit jmlondon.com.

Anne Magill: The Three. Oil on canvas. Courtesy John Martin Gallery

LICHT FELD Gallery, Basel, Switzerland

LICHT FELD Gallery began in 2001 with an annual exhibition on the Gundeldinger Feld in Basel, Switzerland. In 2012, LICHT FELD opened its exhibition space at Davidsbodenstrasse 11 in Basel. The gallery specializes in modern and contemporary art across diverse mediums including paintings, sculptures, installations, performance, and video art. LICHT FELD has established itself as a platform for innovative artistic practices while maintaining its roots in the Basel art community.

To learn more about LICHT FELD Gallery, visit lichtfeld.ch.

Karl A. Meyer: Koyanisquatsi. Woodcut on Canvas. Courtesy LICHT FELD Gallery

Oliver Sears Gallery, Dublin, Ireland

Oliver Sears Gallery operates from an elegant Georgian building in central Dublin, presenting a contemporary exhibition program featuring both Irish and international artists, from emerging talents to established names. The gallery distinguishes itself through its inclusion of contemporary applied arts within its programming.

With a proven track record of delivering innovative exhibitions supported by collectors, museum curators, and critics, Oliver Sears Gallery has established itself as one of the most respected voices in the Irish art world. The gallery maintains an international presence, bringing carefully curated exhibitions to London and New York. To explore Oliver Sears Gallery's program, visit oliversearsgallery.com.

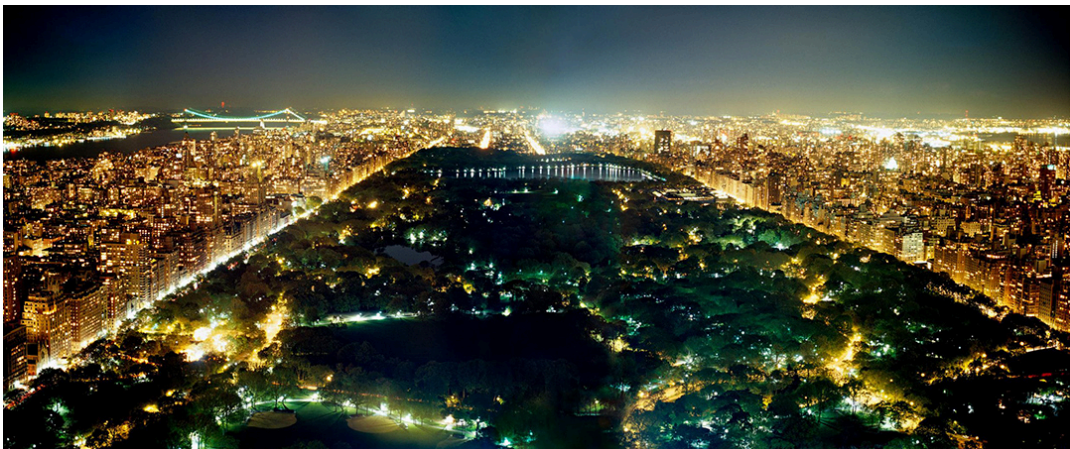

Michael Canning: The good life is out there. Oil and wax on canvas. Courtesy Oliver Sears Gallery

Onessimo Fine Art, Palm Beach Gardens

Onessimo Fine Art provides access to fine art, sculpture, and contemporary glass from old and modern masters to contemporary artists of established value. Based in Palm Beach, the gallery features world-renowned artists across multiple mediums including paintings, master prints, multimedia, photography, and sculptures in glass and metals.

To learn more about Onessimo Fine Art, visit onessimofineart.com.

David Drebin: Central Park. Courtesy Onessimo Fine Art

Art Palm Beach 2026: January 28–February 1, 2026

Palm Beach County Convention Center, West Palm Beach

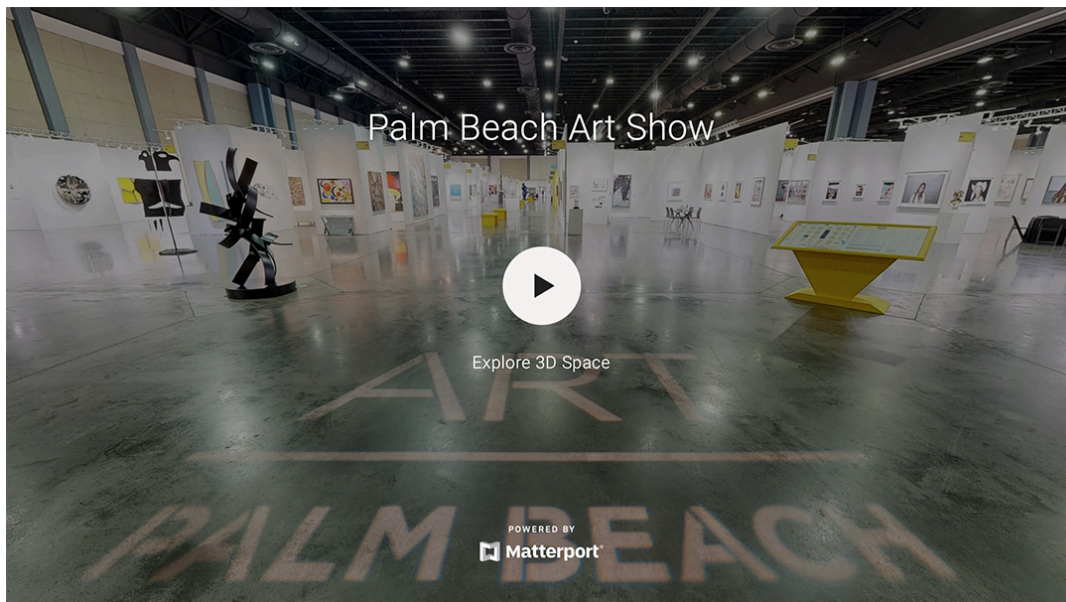

Join collectors and art enthusiasts during Palm Beach's peak winter season for a carefully curated selection of established galleries and emerging voices. The show offers an intimate setting to view and acquire works that reflect current trends while discovering new perspectives in contemporary art. Palm Beach's growing reputation as an art destination makes this an ideal time to explore the market. For tickets and information, visit:

artpalmbeach.com

Take a 3D Virtual Tour of Art Palm Beach 2025

Couldn't attend the 2025 edition of Art Palm Beach in person or maybe you'd like to revisit some highlights from the show? Take a fun 3-D virtual tour of Art Palm Beach here: <https://www.artpalmbeach.com/virtual-tour/>

2026 Art Palm Beach

January 28—February 1, 2026

Palm Beach County Convention Center

650 Okeechobee Blvd. West Palm Beach, FL 33401

For more information, visit:

www.ArtPalmBeach.com

Follow Art Palm Beach on Social Media!

2025 PARTNERS

CULTURAL PARTNERS

SHOW PARTNER

SPONSORS

NORTON MUSEUM OF ART

COMMUNITY PARTNERS

MEDIA SPONSORS

Copyright © 2025 Art Palm Beach Show, All rights reserved.

Update or Unsubscribe